

WHO WE ARE:

Brisk Research is a research and consulting company focused on providing business, economic, social and political raw data on emerging markets. Which include Africa, South America, India and South East Asia. The key components of Brisk Research business are quality reporting on publicly traded companies incorporated in the emerging market, economics and consulting on investments in emerging markets. Woman and minority owned, Brisk focuses on quality service and value added resource for our clients through data platforms that are easy to access and use, as well as consulting services that enhance the regional knowledge and connections for our clients.

OUR MISSION:

Brisk Research general mission is connecting the dots through research and consulting. We bridge the gaps related to the emerging markets, thereby enhancing proper business decisions, investments, and fostering business growth for all our clients and recipients.

OUR SERVICES, PRODUCTS AND SOLUTIONS:

Brisk Research offers three areas of research and consulting services;

- Data Products: Our data products include online applications/systems that cover numerous sets of data from financial data to country data to company data. These data sets provide solutions to needs of tangible business decisions.
- Consulting services: Our consulting services include ground business consulting and partnerships, feasibility study work, financial, economic and political consultations.
- Customized Solutions: Our Customized solutions include customized research and analytical projects, xml data feeds into partners systems, industry and market analysis.